Level Red Restrictions for Businesses

Rising COVID-19 cases, hospitalizations, and positivity rate force further restrictions.

Restrictions effective as of 5 p.m. Friday, November 20, 2020.

What you need to know:

- All public and private gatherings of any number of people who are not members of a single household are prohibited.
- Restaurants: Take-out, delivery, to-go or outdoor dining with groups of own household members only. Last call for outdoor restaurant service is 8 p.m. Alcohol take-out and delivery closes at 10 p.m. Outdoor dining is allowed past 10 p.m.
- Bars are closed. Exception for qualified on-site food service.
- Any facility that sells alcohol, including restaurants, breweries, distilleries, wineries, grocery, and liquor stores, are not allowed to sell or deliver alcohol after 10 p.m.
- Marijuana dispensaries are not allowed to sell or deliver their products after 10 p.m.
- Non-critical manufacturing: 25% of the posted occupancy-limit indoors, not to exceed 50 people
- Non-critical offices: 10% of employees. Remote work is encouraged.
- Non-critical retail (including indoor malls): 50% of the posted occupancy-limit with increased curbside pick-up and delivery.
- Personal services (salons, studios, parlors, barber shops, etc.): 25% of the posted occupancy-limit, not to exceed 25 people excluding staff, whichever is less, per room.
- Gyms, recreation centers and indoor pools may operate at 10% capacity, not to exceed 10 people, excluding staff, whichever is less, per room indoors or per activity or area outdoors. Reservations required.
- Only organized events adhering to control measures may operate at the event capacity limit of:
  - Indoor events: Closed.
  - Outdoor events: 25% of the posted occupancy limit, not to exceed 75 people, only with members of your own household and 6 feet of spacing between groups, excluding staff.
  - Sporting events: No spectators at high school and college events. Adult and youth recreational sports are closed.
  - Places of worship and life rites: 25% of the posted occupancy-limit indoors, not to exceed 50 people excluding staff, whichever is less, per room.

Don’t forget:
Face coverings must now be worn when outdoors with people other than those from the same household when social distancing is not possible.

For more information on Level Red:
https://covid19.colorado.gov/data/covid-19-dial

For more information and specifics on Denver’s response and the rollback to Level Red:
www.denvergov.org/covid19