

Denver Labor Organizational Chart

This image shows Denver Labor at the center of an organizational chart. The top portion shows that Denver Labor is a division of the Denver Auditor's Office. The Audit Services Division is shown as a separate division that also branches off from the Denver Auditor's Office but is separate from Denver Labor.

The bottom portion of the image shows the three areas that Denver Labor oversees, in this order: the minimum wage, the civil wage theft, and the prevailing wage.
