Citizen Oversight Board Announces Independent Monitor Finalists and Community Events

DENVER - The Citizen Oversight Board is pleased to announce three finalists for the vacant Independent Monitor position. The three finalists are:

- Robert Booth II (Denver, CO)
- Joseph Lipari (Boulder, CO)
- Dana Walton-Macaulay (Portland, OR)

Prior to the Board's decision, the COB will co-host two virtual evening sessions with community organizations and finalists. These events will be:

February 16, 5:30 – 7:00 p.m.

Co-Hosted with members of the advocacy and faith-based work communities

<https://denvergov-org.zoom.us/j/86509674451>

February 17, 5:30 – 7:00 p.m.

Co-Hosted with members of the service provider community

<https://denvergov-org.zoom.us/j/89011940617>

Community members will get the chance to learn more about the candidates, ask them questions, and provide feedback to the Board. The board is soliciting community member questions in advance of these gatherings.

Next week the Board will also share a video featuring each of the finalists responding to questions. Residents who are unable to attend either of the events above are encouraged to watch the video and share any feedback they have.

Community members are encouraged to email COB@denvergov.org with questions they'd like the candidates to answer, requests for translation services, or interest in joining as a co-host to the events.
