MEETING AGENDA
Landmark Preservation Commission
Emergency Meeting called by Chair on May 31, 2022
9:00 a.m., Friday, June 3, 2022 – Virtual Meeting

UPDATE: Impact of COVID-19 to Denver Landmark Preservation Commission meetings

In order to protect the health of the public, Landmark Preservation Commission members, and city staff, the Landmark Preservation Commission will hold their meetings remotely, per the public health recommendation of the Executive Director of the Denver Department of Public Health and Environment. Members of the public wishing to speak are encouraged to participate online or by phone via Zoom, but they may also come to the Webb Municipal Building, Room 4.I.5, to comment via computer in person. Speakers are encouraged to register for the meeting at which they would like to speak on the Landmark Preservation Commission’s website. Written comments may be submitted to landmark@denvergov.org until noon the day prior to the LPC meeting and will be forwarded to members of the Commission ahead of the meeting.

Please mute your cell phone prior to the start of the meeting.

A sign language interpreter or real-time captioning via CART, (Communication Access Realtime Translation) will be provided upon request. Three business days’ notice is requested. Contact SignLanguageServices@denvergov.org.
