

WHAT ADDRESS SHOULD I USE TO REGISTER TO VOTE?

- If you have no fixed, permanent address, you may use any address to which you regularly return and have the intent to remain. This location is referred to as a “home base” (your residential address) and may be used for voter registration purposes.
- You may use a park, vacant lot, campground, or homeless shelter as home base for voter registration purposes. You may provide any physical location as an address you intend that location to be your home base.
- You will have to provide a valid mailing address to receive correspondence, including your mail ballot. Without a valid mailing address, you cannot be registered to vote.
- If you have adopted a new permanent residence prior to the election, you will need to update your voter registration information at www.GoVoteColorado.gov.

CAN I USE A POST OFFICE BOX?

- You cannot use a post office box as a residential address. You must provide a physical location so the Elections Division can determine which ballot you should receive.
- Post office boxes may be used as a mailing address. You must list a physical location as your residential address, and then list a post office box as your mailing address.

AM I ELIGIBLE TO VOTE?

- To be eligible to vote in Colorado, you must be a U.S. citizen, be 18 years old, and have resided in Colorado for at least 22 days prior to the election date.
- In presidential elections, voters who have resided in Colorado for fewer than 22 days may be eligible to cast a vote in the presidential race. You will be required to cast a provisional ballot and may receive one at any of the voter service and polling centers.
- You may pre-register to vote at 16.

IF YOU WERE ARRESTED FOR, OR CONVICTED OF A CRIME, YOU MAY REGISTER TO VOTE IF YOU:

- Are on probation for either a misdemeanor or felony.
- Are a pretrial detainee awaiting trial.
- Are currently in jail serving a misdemeanor sentence only.
- Are no longer serving a term of imprisonment due to a felony conviction.

NOTE: If you were previously registered to vote and were incarcerated due to a felony conviction, your registration will have been canceled and you must re-register if you wish to vote.

KEY DATES

- Oct. 8: Ballots begin mailing to all active registered voters.
- Oct. 25: last day to request a ballot to be mailed to you; last day to mail your ballot back.
- Nov. 2: last day to vote; ballots must be received by 7 p.m.
