Ballot Measures - Talabaaqooyinka Cod-baaniinta

Ballot questions referred by the general assembly or any political subdivision are listed by letter, and ballot questions retained by the people are listed numerically.

A ballot question listed as an "amendment" proposes a change to the constitution of the State of Colorado, and a ballot question listed as a "proposition" proposes a change to a law or ordinance of the State of Colorado. A "Yes" vote for any ballot question is a vote in favor of changing current law or state constitution. A "No" vote for any ballot question is a vote against changing current law or state constitution. Ballot questions that are not labeled as amendments or propositions are either general assembly or political subdivision ballot questions. A "Yes" vote on any ballot question is a vote in favor of changing current law or state constitution. A "No" vote on any ballot question is a vote against changing current law or state constitution.

Ballot questions referred to the people are not listed numerically, and the words "Yes" or "No" do not appear on the ballot.
