Financial Overview

Brendan Hanlon, Chief Financial Officer
Denver’s Financial Plan for Economic Recovery

Leveraging multiple financial resources to galvanize a long-term economic recovery
The proposed budget primarily focuses on restoration and represents an increase over recent years:

12.6% increase over the 2021 budget, and a 3.8% increase over 2019 actual expenditures.

14.2% 2022 Fund Balance
The City has a goal of a 15% fund balance, and a minimum is 10%. The Fund Balance for 2020 was 12.4%.
Economic Overview
Economic Strengths and Vulnerabilities

The Upsides
- Denver’s uptick in vaccination rates
- Consistent, sustained early revenue recovery
- Anticipated easing of supply-chain issues

The Vulnerabilities
- Eligible but unvaccinated people leading to resumed restrictions
- Labor shortage
- Conclusion of expanded federal protections/support
- Persistent inflation
- Inequality in the recovery
Economic Recovery Underway, but Fragile

Optimistic Signals of Recovery
- Better than expected single-digit August national unemployment rate
- Many businesses are moving forward with reopening
- Home sales are strong
- Home construction back to pre-pandemic levels
- Consumer Spending levels over summer better than expected

Concerns
- Slowed rate of job growth with jobless claims remaining stubbornly high
- Lack of additional federal fiscal stimulus that largely propped up prior consumer spending
- Slide in consumer sentiment
- Considerable uncertainty remains regarding public health as well as sustainability of economic recovery to date
2021 Economy

• The rollout of vaccines in spring led to sharp increases in consumer confidence, household spending, and a return of domestic tourism throughout summer with optimism that the pandemic was behind us

• While the onset of the coronavirus Delta variant is damaging to economic recovery, this wave is proving to be substantially less disruptive
  – Consumer sentiment has fallen sharply along with lagging consumer spending as a result of increased caution around travel and restaurant dining
  – Vehicle sales likely to be weaker given supply constraints
  – Rate of vaccinations anticipated to increase
  – Business confidence continues to remain high and expectations for continued job growth remain

• Strength of economic recovery is clearly tethered to public health

• As additional data comes in, assumptions and projections will be updated

Budget Priorities
2022 Budget Priorities: An Equitable Recovery

- Equity
- Economic Recovery
- Housing and Homelessness Resolution
- Keeping People and Neighborhoods Safe
Goal: Provide a decision-making framework for city agencies/departments to balance budget priorities or adjustments to make necessary decisions and meet the demands of a growing city with limited fiscal resources.

The Opportunity: Each budgetary adjustment provides an opportunity to prioritize creating equitable results to avoid a disruption of services to historically marginalized communities of color, First Nations/Indigenous and under resourced communities.

The What: The Budget Equity Framework questions are used to operationalize a process into the city-wide budget as agencies/departments allocate economic resources to meet the diverse needs of the people we serve.
2022 Budget Equity Process

The Mayor's Office of Social Equity and Innovation was involved in all budget meetings to coach, review proposals, consider mitigations, and provide feedback.

2021-2022 Capital Project Locations

Where do we need to improve access to opportunity?
This map provides a current snapshot of the areas in Denver with more and less access to opportunity. The darker areas have the lowest access to opportunity. In those areas, it is important to guide change in ways that increases access to basic goods, services and amenities to improve quality of life. Using this measurement is a good way to assess whether we are achieving the vision for every neighborhood in Denver to be complete.
