The City and County of Denver ("Denver") retains Independent Registered Municipal Advisors ("Advisors" or "Advisor") to, among other things, provide advice to Denver related to the issuance of municipal securities (including advice regarding the structuring, timing, terms and other matters concerning the issuance of municipal securities) and municipal financial products (including escrow investments), as well as the strategic and financial evaluation of potential Public Private Partnerships. Denver will rely on the advice of its Advisor in evaluating any recommendation or proposals presented by underwriters or potential underwriters. The term "rely on" means Denver will seek and consider the advice, analysis and perspective of its Advisor; however, "rely on" does not mean that Denver must or will follow the advice of its Advisor. In the event Denver wishes to evaluate specific underwriter proposals, pitch books or ideas, Denver will forward such proposals, pitch books or ideas to the appropriate Advisor for review.

The Advisors listed above have represented to Denver that they are registered as municipal advisors with the Securities and Exchange Commission and that they will notify Denver of any material changes effecting their status. This certificate supersedes any certificates previously provided by Denver and may be relied upon until further amended or otherwise withdrawn by us. By publicly posting this written disclosure, Denver intends that market participants receive and use it for purposes of the independent registered municipal advisor exemption to the SEC Municipal Advisor Rule.

Sincerely,
