 - 1) the employee consents to the reassignment, or
 - 2) the employee is granted a leave without pay from the original position for the duration of the reassignment.

5-84 Reasonable Accommodations for Individuals with Disabilities Policy
(Effective January 1, 2009; Rules Revision Memo 34C)

It is the policy of the Career Service Authority to provide equal employment opportunity to individuals with disabilities. This rule is intended to comply with and be interpreted consistently with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("ADA"), as amended.

A. Disability Discrimination

No appointing authority, official, supervisor or employee shall discriminate against a qualified individual on the basis of disability in regard to job application procedures, the hiring, advancement, or discharge of employees, employee compensation, job training, or other terms, conditions, or privileges of employment.

B. Reasonable Accommodation

A department or agency shall provide a reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or employee, unless it can be demonstrated that the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the operation of the agency or department.

C. Qualification Standards and Direct Threat

It is not a violation of this policy for CSA to apply qualification standards, tests, or selection criteria or for an agency or department to apply selection criteria that screen out or tend to screen out or otherwise deny a job or benefit to an individual with a disability if such standards, tests, or selection criteria have been shown to be job-related and consistent with business necessity, and such performance cannot be accomplished by reasonable accommodation.
