

Office of Human Resources
Administrative Support Supervisor I - LC1510
THIS IS A PUBLIC DOCUMENT

General Statement of Duties

Supervise and coordinate activities of workers involved in providing administrative support.

Distinguishing Characteristics

The Administrative Support Supervisor I class performs first-line supervisory duties over workers performing office support duties which support the development and implementation of policies, procedures, standards, training and methods for managing a specialized system or program. The work also involves responsibility for maintaining, advising on, interpreting the policies, reviewing, and evaluating the management of such systems or programs. The Administrative Support Supervisor I is distinguished from the Administrative Support Assistant V which performs assigned lead work in office support duties, and is also distinguished from the Administrative Support Supervisor II class which performs second-level supervisory duties over employees performing first-line supervisory duties and usually does not engage in the same work as the workers supervised. This is the sixth class of a seven level series.
