Human Services Operations Supervisor - CA3096
THIS IS A PUBLIC DOCUMENT

General Statement of Duties

This class performs supervisory duties over non-supervisory employees, technicians, professional support staff and administrative staff and supports professional and/or higher-level supervisors/managers through the application of the principles of a discipline, profession, and/or field of study to accomplish the operational goals of the assigned area(s).

Distinguishing Characteristics

This class performs supervisory duties over non-supervisory employees, technicians, professional support and administrative staff and supports professional and/or higher-level supervisors/managers through the application of the principles of a discipline, profession, and/or field of study to accomplish the operational goals of the assigned area(s).

This class is distinguished from a Human Services Operations Manager that performs second level supervisory work over a section(s) through subordinate supervisors of administrative, professional support, and/or technical staff, provides leadership, direction, and long range and short-term planning, and directs operational policy development and performance criteria for the assigned area(s)) in conjunction with departmental plans and goals. The Human Services Operations Supervisor class is distinguished from the Supervisor of Administrative Support I class that supervises and coordinates the activities of workers involved in providing office support work.

The Human Services Operations Supervisor class is distinguished from the Staff Assistant class that performs professional support level work assisting professional staff in the execution and application of a specific administrative function(s) to the operations of an organization. Additionally, a Staff Assistant is responsible for administrative functions which are typically performed by an administrator or professional level class that have been delegated by a supervisor/manager to support an operational or functional area(s). A Staff Assistant may be assigned supervisory responsibilities over office support staff but would not supervise administrative, professional support, or technical employees.
