

2022 “BLACKOUT” LIST FOR PARK PERMITS

This list contains all park/facility locations and dates that are NOT available as of November 1, 2021 due to historical priority reservations, City activities, park closures, rest period closures and restrictions. Applications for these locations or dates will automatically be rejected.

Please note this is not a comprehensive list of all parks available in the park system, only those that are unavailable or have restrictions. Visit www.denvergov.org/findapark for all parks in the Denver park system.

1. Please review this list in its entirety to ensure applications are successfully submitted
2. The list is in alphabetical order by park, then by date. Please note that blackout dates affecting all parks are shown at the top of the list as “all parks”
3. If the park and date you are seeking is on this list, IT IS NOT AVAILABLE IN 2022. Please check the notes on the right for information on exceptions. If allowed, and available, reservations will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis beginning November 1, 2021

DEFINITIONS

Historical Priority: a permitted public event or assembly that has been held for three (3) consecutive years in the same park and on the same date/weekend/holiday by the same permittee. Prior to January 1, 2017, the requirement was two (2) consecutive years. If historical priority status was not secured by the end of 2016, it now falls to the three (3) year requirement

Public Event: includes runs, walks, concerts, festivals, etc. which are open to the public

Assembly: includes 1st Amendment activities, demonstrations, rallies, and vigils

Special Occasion: a private, by invitation only event (wedding, reception, graduation, corporate function, etc.)

Parks Permit Office: 720.913.0700 (press 6) | park.permits@denvergov.org | www.denvergov.org/permits
