In cases where the garage door faces the primary street, it cannot project further than the facade portions that constitute at least 65% of the total width of the primary structure enclosing the primary use (see section 13.1.6.H of the Denver Zoning Code).