Overview

The Denver Police Department Volunteers in Police Service program is designed to have police officers and community volunteers working together to adequately address the administrative, community policing, and time demand issues facing the Police Department.

The VIPs program seeks first-rate volunteers to take on tasks in partnership with the men and women of the Denver Police Department serving the community of the Denver Metropolitan area. We seek to provide volunteers with rewarding and challenging positions, which enhances the capacity of the Police Department to make Denver a better and safer city.

Mission Statement

The Volunteers In Police Service Program is committed to developing a spirit of cooperation and partnership within the community to enhance the Denver Police Department's ability to serve the city of Denver.

Message from the Chief of Police

The Denver Police Department's mission statement is "Preventing crime and increasing public trust while honoring the responsibilities granted to us by those we serve, with continued focus on partnerships, learning, and innovation". Thank you for your interest in applying to be a Denver Police Volunteer and working together towards this mission. DPD volunteers are vital in increasing trust with our community. Additionally, as our partners, volunteers help in crime reduction in a myriad of ways.

Volunteerism is at the heart of public service -- as is law enforcement -- and we thank you for not only being a volunteer, but for choosing to do it alongside Denver Police officers. Our volunteers are essential to the Department and your efforts truly make DPD a first-class department.

Again, thank you for considering being a part of something that has a direct and positive impact on the department and community.

Sincerely,

Ron Thomas
Chief of Police
